The Waterway Then Christened by Emperor William II.

"In the Name of the Triune God, in Honor f Emperor William (The Great) to the Weal of Germany and the Welfare of all Nations."

HOLTENAU, June 29 .- Emperor William visited the Russian armored cruiser Rurik at 9:30 Friday morning and subsequently laid the last stone of the Baltic and North sea canal, in the presence of many thousands of spectators. The weather was brilliant.

After visiting the Russian armored cruiser Rurik at 9:30 Friday morning, Empeoror William laid the last stone of the Baltic and North sea canal in the presence of many thousands of spectators. The weather was brilliant and the ceremony took place in the open air and not in the light-house adjoining the sluice, as at first contemplated. The scene of the ceremony was embelished by handsome designs in landscape gardening, and the lighthouse standing close to the spot, showed the three bronze reliefs of Emperor William I., Frederick III. and William II. Under the relief medallion of Emperor William I., is a black marble tablet, on which is engraved in gilt lettering, "His majesty, Emperor William I., laid the corner stone of the Baltic canal on June 3, 1887, and accompanied his blows with the hammer by the words, 'In honor of United Germany, to her perfect welfare, in token of her might and power."

The light-house and the block of masonry into which the emperor placed the finishing s'one, were surrounded by enormous scaffolding, rising in a semi-circle and affording seats for about 15,000 people. In laying the stone the emperor said: "In memory of Emperor William, the Great, I christen this canal, the Kaiser Wilhelm canal." His majesty then tapped the stone three times with a mallet, saying: "In the name of the Triune God, in honor of Emperor William, to the weal of Germany and the welfare of nations."

CLEVELAND'S AFFLICTION.

He Has Rheumatic Spasms—Why Dr. O'Reilly Has Been Detailed as Body Guard.

WASHINGTON. June 22.-There has been some comment here upon the fact that when President Cleveland left this city he was accompanied as far as Jersey City by Dr. O'Reilly, and that Dr. Bryant met the party at the latter city and accompanied him to Gray Gables. Dr. O'Reilly is an army surgeon, who seems to have been detailed as a sort of body guard to the president who is accompanied on all his trips by either a physician or an army surgeon. His appearance indicates good health, but it has been whispered in certain circles that he is subject to severe and sudden attacks of rheumatism in the chest, and that Dr. O'Reilly recently saved his life with great difficulty during one of his spasms. It is known that Mr. Cleveland is very apprehensive of his condition, and he prefers to have a physician near him. On his long fishing trips Dr. O'Reilly usually accom-panies him. It has been announced that Mr. Cleveland does not expect to return to Washington until October, and that he will devote the summer to fishing and improving his estate at Gray Gables. Dr. Bryant is expected to remain at Gray Gables for several weeks.

COMPILING ALL SCHOOL LAWS. WASHINGTON, June 22.-The bureau of education is making a compilation of the school laws of various states. It will show that the regulations as to appointment and qualification of teachers and their methods of teaching vary greatly in the different sections of the country. Some difficulty has been met by the bureau in obtaining statutes and in many cases they have been bought outright from the states. The compilation probably will be published next antumn and after publication in the annual report of the commissioner of education, may be issued in a separate edition of twenty thousand copies.

THIRD DAY.

The Republican League Convention Elects M. J. Dowling, Secretary, and Passes the Pallon Resolution.

CLEVELAND, O., June 22.-It was 11 o'clock Friday morning before Gen. McAlpin, in his new capacity as president of the league of republican clubs, called the meeting to order.

The first business was the election of a secretary to the convention. T. E. Byrnes, of Minneapolis, nominated M. J. Dowling, of the same state. William Kelly, of Wisconsin, seconded the nomination of William Grant Eden, of Illinois. Delegate Perry Powers, of Michigan, offered a resolution which provided that the executive committee be permitted to select the secretary. t A. L. Morrison, of New Mexico, supported Mr. Howard's proposition, and several speakers opposed the proposi-

Mrs. Ellen Foster, of Washington, supported the motion to have the exective committee select the secretary. Mrs. Foster spoke from the platform and was warmly applauded.

Gen. Goff, of Illinois, opposed the motion and warmly supported the candidacy of William Grant Eden.

At this point Congressman Towney, of Minnesota, made the point of order that the constitution of the league providing for the election of a secretary at the annual meeting, the resolution to refer the matter to the executive committee was out of order.

The convention got into a turmoil over the point of order which Gen. Me-Alpin refused to decide, and the parliamentary fight might have lasted until evening had not Delegate Howard put an end to the whole matter by withdrawing the motion.

The roll call on the election of secretary was begun, and M. J Dowling. of Minnesota. was elected. The vote was made unanimous on motion of Judge Goff.

Mr. Dowling is a country editor, but his official position at present is chief clerk of the Minnesota house of representatives. He is a young man scarcely 30 years old, and is the son of a Union soldier. The position is one involving much clerical labor, and pays $3,000.

The committee on resolutions then reported the Patton resolution, as fol-

"Whereas. Section 16 of the constitution of the republican league of the United States deavor to influence the national, state county or municipal convention.' the delegates of the republican league of the United States, in convention assembled, do hereby renew their allegiance to the principles of the republican party, and pledge their best efforts for the success of the candidates of that party. Believing this convention has no instructions from the republicans of the United States or jurisdiction under our constitution to frame party platforms, we hereby refer all resolutions in relation to public questions to the re-publican national convention of 1896 with enire confidence that its action will redound to the prosperity of our people and the continned glory and advancement of the country." This is a clear evasion of the financial question. The gold people are forced to abandon their position taken in the beginning, and the silver people are not strong enough to force through their own platform, so the result is seen in the ignoring of the money question.

When Senator Thurston, of Nebraska, who was in the chair, put the motion on the passage of the resolution a loud chorus of ayes arose. Only three or four feeble naves were heard when the other side of the question was put.

Votes of thanks were tendered to the people of Cleveland and ex-President W. W. Tracy. The election of treasurer was passed, and the convention adjourned sine die. It will now devolve on the executive committee to choose the treasurer.

Gen. W. R. Moore, ex-congressman of Tennessee, had an address prepared on the resources of the south, but the convention adjourned without giving him a chance to deliver it.

Amalgamated Scale Signed.

PITTSBURGH, June 22.-The conference between the wage committee of the Amalgamated association and the iron and steel sheet manufacturers ended by signing a scale to run from July 1 to June 30 of next year. A sliding scale, based on the selling price of sheets, was adopted, instead of the old base of the selling price of bar iron. The workers are to get I per cent. increase on every 10 per cent. advance in the price of sheets. This is practically the same as last year's scale. This agreement insures work for 20,000 men.
